SUBJECT: FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI
UNKNOWN - VICTIMS
WSTA; ITAR - PROSTITUTION

On 3/2/64 AUSA FRANKLIN GIMBEL, EDW, advised that the subject may be violating the WSTA Statute. AUSA GIMBEL advised that BALISTRIERI caused "strippers" to come to the Downtowner and Henri's from out of state and then causes these girls to engage in prostitution or take care of his hoodlum friends, in Milwaukee.

It is recommended that a new 31 case be opened to ascertain if any WSTA or ITAR - PROSTITUTION Statutes have been violated.

State Charge Against Dancer Is Dropped

A state charge of prostitution against a former dancer at the Downtowner cocktail lounge, 340 W Wells st, has been dropped, it was learned Sunday.

The dancer is Miss Noelle Marie De Mazelher, 30, formerly of 6361 S 27th st, Franklin, who uses the stage name of Darbi Wilde.

Donald Steinmetz, an assistant district attorney, said the state charge was dropped when it was learned that Miss De Mazelher was living in San Francisco, Calif, where she faced surgery as a result of an automobile accident. If found guilty of a state charge of prostitution, one year in prison could result.

Steinmetz said he reached agreement with her attorney, James Shellow, that she would plead guilty in absentia to a city charge of prostitution. The plea was entered Mar 6 before County Judge F Ryan Duffy, jr who assessed a fine of $25, according to court records.

Miss De Mazelher was arrested in a downtown hotel last June with Robert Keller, 40, of 17020 Judith lane, Brookfield.

INFORMANTS

b7D

[REDACTED] has advised that BALISTRIERI knew that practically all the girls coming in as entertainers were prostitutes, but he had warned the girls to be careful whom they solicit and he was not taking any cut of the money that the girls earned as prostitutes.

ADMINISTRATIVE

For the information of Chicago, Oklahoma City and St. Louis, investigation in this case was initiated upon request of AUSA FRANKLYN M. GIMBEL, EDW, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, to determine if FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI was bringing in, through booking agents, strippers to work as prostitutes in the Milwaukee area. The referenced report contained a list of 83 girls who had been employed as entertainers at Henri's Show Lounge, 730 North 5th Street and the Downtowner Cocktail Lounge, 340 West Wells Street, between September, 1961 and February, 1964. It should be noted the Identification Division was able to furnish arrest records regarding vice violations for thirteen of the 83 girls, therefore, only these 13 girls are included in this report.
